Dot Warner

Dot is the youngest of the Warner siblings, and the only female.
She is self-absorbed in her cuteness (Goodnight everybody!), thinking that nobody can be cuter than her. Her catchphrase is "Boys, go fig."
She has a terrifying pet in a small box, and she also has a fiery temper.
Despite her young age, she needs no protection from her brothers, because she is a tough girl with a mallet, and girls like that can kick anybody’s tail.
