BB-8 Droid

Star Wars Episode VII - Scale 1:6

This is a model of a new droid in Star Wars universe, it first appears in Episode VII : The Force Awakens (2015). When I see the first trailer of the movie which this ball like droid appears, I want to make it but the complexity of the sphere curve made me to put a side that project for a while. It's hard to make an easy template but still looks good, until our friend Fidel Olmos Aaron from Venezuela send me his template of BB-8 droid to me. The 2 sheets template is in PDF and PDO which also the assembly instructions. The scale of this model is 1:6 according to Fidel.
